Jenny Kee

THE LOOK - ART OF THE SCARF

In her first showing in over 20 years, Jenny Kee's collection (styled by Luke Sales and Anna Plunkett of Romance Was Born) was nothing short of pure, theatrical brilliance.

Beneath eucalyptus branches, from which silk scarves hung, pale-faced models with vivid pink eyes and red lips were draped in delicate dresses and skirts, heads adorned with colourful African-inspired turbans. Every bright, bold shade of the rainbow was featured in Kee's phenomenally detailed and vibrant printwork, inspired by the Waratah.

CND STYLE SPOTLIGHT

Paying homage to Jenny's waratah inspired prints, CND stylists meticulously hand-marbled each and every tip, creating hundreds of one-off designs.

To create the look, each tip was given a base of CND Brilliant White, before being marbled with Anchor Blue, Green Scene, Bicycle Yellow, Relay Red and Blackjack to create a kaleidoscope of primary colour.
