Gail Sorronda

'HOLY WATER'

Gail Sorronda's 2015 Spring/Summer Collection 'HOLY WATER' is inspired by the divinity of water. It is a spiritual portal, cleansing and flowing between worlds, the microcosm and macrocosm, ancient and eternal. The circle is used to symbolise this cosmic unity. Celebrating 10 years since her QUT graduate collection 'Angel at my Table', 'HOLY WATER' marks a cycle and a journey bringing Sorronda back to her roots. The collection represents her flow and metamorphosis as a designer.

NAIL STYLING: Medium almond nails were slicked with two coats of CND™ VINYLUX® classic white - Cream Puff - to complement Sorronda's signature use of black and white.
